EXPECTED OUTCOMES {THE WHY}

- An updated city playground would:
  - Provide a free, safe place for children to stay active
  - Help develop self-confidence
  - Improve social skills
  - Fight childhood obesity
  - Be a multi-generational activity, allowing parents, grandparents, and other caregivers with disabilities or limited mobility to participate with their children
  - Goal is to break ground on new park in 2023

BUDGET {THE HOW}

Estimated program budget:

- Playground Equipment: $200,000-$250,000
- Professional Installation: $50,000
- PIP Surfacing (7,800 sq ft): $180,000
- Freight/Other charges/Permits: $10,000-$30,000
- Removal/Disposal of existing equipment and surfacing: $25,000-$50,000
- Restoration/Landscaping: $10,000-$30,000
- Establish maintenance fund: $75,000
- Extras (shade cloths, benches): $300,000+
- Extras (bathroom update) $200,000+

>>>Total Budget: $1,050,000-$1,200,000

CURRENT CONDITION OF LUNDA PARK

Currently, there are no all-abilities parks within 30 miles of Black River Falls. Above are pictures of the park as it currently sits. The wood is rotting and many pieces of equipment are in need of updates. The sand is no longer a safe surface for children if they would fall from a piece of equipment.
